or the filming of Pure? GPA Films and Director Jim Donovan's upcoming feature length film tells the love story of a young couple united by modern day clubbing's free and jubilant feelings. Invited to be a part of the film's fiery club scenes, our frisky city's club-heads, party divas and groovy gents gathered at Aria Nightclub recently for a colossal party hosted by the DoYouLookGood crew, the RaveMontreal crew and NRG Productions. Spoiled with giveaways from Via Rail, TheGuvernment Toronto, Fidel, Smirnoff Tripple Black/Coors Light samples, we danced and partied the night away as Dj Lafleche rocked the decks.

Another hype invitation went out the following week as GPA films, Alliage 3 Entertainment and Finite Records announced a second filming held at the Rialto Theatre. Described as a "Matrix style" carnival rave, this event attracted fire breathers, drag queens, acrobats and pleasure-seeking patrons dressed in white. With the film crew hard at work, outlandishly costumed attendees created an ultimate party vibe. VJ's Moment Factory, and Djs Maus, Nivoc, Miguel Graca and Guapo are a few names that appeared on the roster. Many thanks for a week of fun. Where were you?
